Freedom is...

Responsibility~that is why most men dread it

Every man having a right to utter what he thinks true

Every other man having a right to knock him down for it

Daring to be different

Open to anyone who can achieve it

Magnificent...

or is it?

Then a young man, Speak to us of Disappointment.
And he answered:

Your disappointments are your hidden rewards.
For who are you to question the effects of fate?
You, my son, are destined to have great success.
Accept your failure, but strive for triumph
As the lowly wayfarer discovers a pot of gold
Such will be a symbol for your achievement.

When you are disappointed, my son, look to the heavens.
Do you not see that only half the world receives the sun's rays
While the rest of the world patiently waits?

Your turn will come, my child. I assure you.
But do not be anxious.
As the masses await their Saviour
With whisper-soft vows on their lips.

Persevere, but do it lovingly.
Have faith in the Lord, my son.
For He knows you are deserving.
As a verdict of innocent befalls the virtuous,
Thusly will G-d grant you much deserved favors.

While Adam waited for Eve in the Garden of Eden
Alone, with no other mortal existence,
He trusted his Creator would take care of him.
Act as did Adam, my son.
Have faith, my child, and your dreams will one day become reality.
For the deserving are acknowledged in the palace of justice.

You are free before the sun of the day and free before the stars of the night; ...
... You are even free when you close your eyes upon all there is.
But you are a slave to him who you love
because you love him,
And a slave to him who loves you because he loves you.

AT THE CARNIVAL

On Friday night there was nothing else to do so we went to the carnival. I brought about three dollars worth of nickles, dimes and quarters to spend — or waste on the little games. But, there was only one thing that I really wanted and that was to win a goldfish.

The carnival was a dizzying mass of confusion. People were hurrying around to the different booths, rides and food stands.

Music blared from speakers while people screamed on the dizzying rides.

People pushed and shoved at the booths. Others stuffed themselves with sticky pink cotton candy and hot dogs. Candy wrappers decorated the ground. Children complained, dragged along by parents.

The first place my friends wanted to go was the ferris wheel, but I was determined to first do out and win a goldfish so I told them to meet me.

I hurried to find the booth. There was a large table and on it were glass jars. In the back of the booth was a tank filled with goldfish. The idea was to get the little white ball in the jar and win a goldfish.

"You moron," a man screamed at a little boy, "Can't you throw straight?"

Two people were arguing about whose ball landed in the jar.

Everyone was pushing, shoving; people were screaming while in the back, the goldfish swam quietly in the tank.

Somebody won. The man behind the booth took the net and put it into the tank. The little fish scurried away, but one was caught. It was scooped up and then dropped into a plastic bag.

The fish swam around nervously. "You got a good one," someone said.

"Hurrah!" As I made my way to the front, a girl won.

"Got a bowl?" asked her friend.

"Na, it's probably gonna die tomorrow anyway," was the reply.

The rest of the goldfish swam quietly, innocently in the tank. I wondered what they knew.

I was finally right near the front, getting out my money and wondering about feeding the fish, when a tall man won.

This time, the boy helping behind the booth went to get a fish. Before he could get it into the plastic bag, however, the fish fell to the ground. The man went to pick it up but he squeezed it too hard and the fish died.

"Fool!" he growled at the boy. "These fish cost money!"

"It's only one," replied the boy meekly.

I saw the rest of the goldfish swimming, dancing — so small, delicate in the dirty glass tank — then into the plastic bags, amidst the mass of confusion.

And then I didn't want a goldfish anymore. I didn't want anyone to have a goldfish and I didn't want to be a part of the carnival.

MESSAGE FROM MR. HARRIS TO GRADUATES 1976

Dear Graduates:

Tom Paine warned that that which we achieve too easily we esteem too lightly. FREEDOM AND INDEPENDENCE, the theme of this graduating class, was not easily achieved. Therefore, we should esteem and cherish it. I am not talking of putting something on a mantel or in a bookcase and admiring it every so often. You see, when we accepted civilization and progress we also accepted limitations on our freedom and independence.

Now you are caught in the mechanism of a complex society. You don't want to be a cog in the machine. You are told to be independent and yet all around you people are placing restraints on your actions. Is there a way out? Yes, I believe so. Hopefully, your years at Sheepshead Bay High School have taught you that your freedom to swing your arm ends before your fist comes close to your fellow student's face. Furthermore, when your fellow human being is not free you are not entirely free because the restrictions placed in one area will surely flow to another. Finally, in times of crisis, we too easily give up some freedom and independence for security. These are times crisis. Freedom and independence are like delicate babes — they have to be cared for and nurtured. Sometimes we have to fight to hold on to them. It is a big price to pay, but well worth it. You, the graduating class of 1976, have the strength and character to pay the price

GOOD LUCK!

Sincerely,

Walter A. Harris

endings are sad, from memories we are fond of, we'll think of them our whole lives through no, we won't forget, no, we can't regret what these years represent.

all our lives are one family together it's as if we always saw,
friendships so dear through the past four years,
we could not ignore gone, the time has quickly gone as we travel on, this is what we'll treasure

we know this is good-bye, we'll point toward tomorrow
we must start a new life

Senior year it is here, it has come at last senior year is done, senior year is gone

STUDENT LIFE

TOGETHER

remember when we played in a crib?
my mother used to tell me how cute we looked together, and we used to crawl around and even drink our bottles in unison,
and then when we got a little older we used to climb trees, see who could outrun who, or catch the biggest frog.
then, when we grew up a little more, we would sit in a field and stare into each others eyes, or just kick around some leaves.
and then when it grew dark, we would sit on my porch and wait for the first star, and when it came, we would wish for the same thing.
we'd wish that we would always be together then when you got drafted, i said i would wait for you.
but one day my world shattered, because you had been killed.
the instant i heard that, i remembered all the times we were together.
i never did like frogs or trees, but, i did anything as long as we had been together.
and that was the important thing.
you will be with me for an eternity, you and me
together always

I listened, learned and understood the words you tried to teach
They had so much meaning, but somehow could not reach.
It's strange to see us changing, and the friendship we held so dear,
But through the years to come, the memories we'll still hold near.
Goodbye is not the word to use, so I'll say fare thee well.
Take care — good luck, my dearest friend, and may God always be there.

STUDENT GOV'T

Dear Seniors,

Have your eyes really seen? We must be observers, stand still and watch the earth turn. There is so much to see in ourselves, in our school, in our world. Have we noticed all that has changed and all that has remained unchanged? Our eyes must capture the picture of today so that it can be remembered tomorrow. Most important, though, is to keep our eyes open so that nothing passes us by unseen.

Hopetully, we are not the last senior class to see electives, extra-curricular activities, teams, clubs, pretzels and sing.

We have lived through teacher strikes, student strikes, room changes, one hundred and one delaney cards, and the loss of many teachers who meant so much.

We have shared one minute, one class, one school, one word. Have our eyes really seen?

One important event of the year that we have shared was Senior Sing Victory. In the beginning everything starts off slowly and seems to go wrong. Suddenly, you are thrown together with people you hardly know, your combined efforts must produce a show.

Time flies and everyone gets to know one another a little more. Living rooms become rehearsal halls, and free time is devoted to script, song and dialogue changes. The chorus tries desperately to sing songs on key. Sing is a week away.

As the alma mater is sung eyes become watery and shivers run up and down spines as the winner is announced. It ends so quickly and an emptiness encompasses everyone.

Now afternoons are free and dear friends must get together on their own time. This is sing, our last sing and we'll miss it.

We have worked together, laughed together and cried together.

Senior celebrity, parties, sing and the senior trip were all successful.

"Friendships so dear through the past four years,

Senior year, it is here.

It has come at last.

Senior year is done

Senior year is gone."

Ten, twenty, thirty years from now we'll turn these pages again, idling and dreaming over the faces and the fates of our friends. I hope you have many and Sheephead has been a friend to you.

There are a few people that I would like to thank for their untiring dedication to the Senior of '76. First, I wish to thank Mr. Arthur Auster, the Senior Class Advisor, for his time and guidance. Many thanks also to my Senior Officers, Linda, Beth, Sharon, John, Stacey, Ira and Vicki, who have contributed so much in making this Senior Class a success. My special thanks and deepest love to all. I hope that our experiences together have been as meaningful for you as they have been for me.

Where ever you go and whatever you do, I shall miss you.

Thank you Seniors of '76 —
LORI CHENKIN
Senior Class President

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

To My Seniors:

This yearbook is one of those books that needs rereading from time to time. Each time you look through its pages, you will have a better understanding of your high school days. The events of your high school days evoked from these pages, will acquire with time, an aura that no other period in your life can match.

Four years ago you entered Sheepshead as children and now you are leaving as adults. In the process, there were events and people who may have changed your thinking and outlook.

A school is not the building, the classrooms, or the teachers alone. A school is its students and the Class of 1976 truly made Sheepshead a school.

I will look at this yearbook often and relive the wonderful times I shared with the Class of 1976. I wish I could imprison time and keep all of you here to preserve this moment. I know that is impossible, but the memory of your class will always be with me.

Arthur Auster
Senior Class Advisor

SGO STUDENT COUNCIL

Dear Fellow Seniors,

As our years of high school come to an end, we begin to reminisce on our previous adventures in Sheepshead Bay.

"Friendships so dear, through the past four years we cannot ignore"

Remember:

When we got lost our first day as freshmen

Our first high school dance, "Sniffles and the Malt-Shoppe"

When we were pushed around as freshmen by the Sophomore in Sing

When we pushed the freshmen around as Sophomores in Sing

Film Festivals

Watching the gorgeous seniors play in the Student-Faculty Basketball Game

The Student Government concerts, History of Rock programs

"Tears of a Clown"

Our support of the representatives of inter-school sing

When we danced in the aisles at the "Charles Dere Concert"

Spring Concert and Assemblies

Eating Sticky, soggy, salty pretzels

Our fight for a football team "Sharks"

"Marlboro City"

Follies 74, 75 and all our talented people

Our winning teams and the teams that gave their all

As seniors we walked out of school to fight for a cause

The protection of your student rights

The Hollywood Dance Sounds of Chicago

Our winning Senior Sing

"We know this is good-bye

We'll point towards tomorrow

We must start a new life

Senior year it is here, it has come at last

Senior year is done, Senior year has gone"

Mr. Harold Dembo and his outstanding leadership which made most of these functions possible

Now that I leave Sheepshead Bay and the Student Government I know that in the future there will be activities for all to enjoy and get involved in. Good luck my fellow graduates.

LONELY

As I walked in the door the smell of moth balls and chicken soup pierced my nostrils. It was a strange smell, but a smell I had become accustomed to and it just wouldn't be grandma's without it. As I glanced across the room, I saw that everything was in place. The doilies were clean and starched, and placed perfectly on either side of the armchair in the drawing room. Every piece of furniture was dusted, and as I looked to the coffee table there was our families history. There were pictures of all the children and grandchildren, their graduations, birthdays, weddings, and other assorted parties. But, there was one picture that always fascinated me, it was their wedding picture. They were young, yet they were old and they had experienced much in their few years. Just then I heard the call from the kitchen, "Come Beth, your soup is getting cold."

As I walked in, I felt secure. There stood Grandma in her cobbler apron, standing over the stove. "Sit down and eat your soup. Grandpa will be here in a few minutes," and before she finished her sentence I could hear the lock on the front door snapping. As he walked into the kitchen her eyes seemed to light up and her face had a younger glow. Grandpa sat down and was served immediately. She loved to make him happy, and if he was pleased, so was she.

Our meal proceeded very noisily, me talking about school, Grandpa telling us all about the shop, and Grandma talking about the gossip of the family. All of this went on, while a political overtone between my grandfather and I could be heard.

After dinner we all went into the drawing room to watch television and talk some more. The telephone rang the whole evening. There were calls from my aunts, my uncles, and the synagogue. The night passed quickly and then it was time for me to leave. I really enjoy spending an evening with them, almost as much as they enjoy having me. As I walked out the door, grandma slipped me a five and said, "Buy yourself something momela."

Across the street sits an old woman looking out of the window. She is lonely and yearns for her grandchildren. And as a tear trickles down her wrinkled face, she falls deeper into her loneliness.

— Beth Singer

Freedom

A more beautiful word has never been written,
A more beautiful thought has never been conceived.
Its kingdom encompasses the content of our dreams.

Robert Levine

As my life goes on I believe, somehow something's changed.
 Something deep inside, a part of me.
 There's a strange new light in my eyes,
 Things I've never known
 Changing my life, changing me

I've been searching so long, to find an answer.
 Now I know my life has meaning

Now I see myself as I am, feeling very free.
 Life is everything it's meant to be.
 When my days have come to an end,
 I will understand,
 What I left behind, part of me

Searching for an answer,
 To the question, "Who am I?"
 Maybe its true, it's only natural.
 Good things in life take a long time.

1776

1976

200 Years

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America,

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Tyranny, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the magnitude which our Grievances have attained, that it is necessary that we must declare to the whole world, that we have resigned our allegiance to the King of Great Britain, and that we are united together in the most sacred and unalienable bond of friendship and mutual assistance, for the purpose of opposing the Tyranny of Great Britain, and of establishing a free and independent Government, in which the Rights of the People shall be preserved and secured. We therefore the Representatives of the united Colonies by and with the advice and consent of the People do hereby declare, that these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the said King of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.

THE ONCOMING REVOLUTION 1776

BOLD DYNAMIC DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE SEVERING ALL BONDS TO THE BRITISH CROWN IS ADOPTED BY THE 2D CONTINENTAL CONGRESS

"it is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us...
that this nation
under God shall have a new birth of freedom-and that government of the people by the people for the people shall not perish from the earth."

TO ALL BRAVE, HEALTHY ABLE BODIED, AND WELL DISPOSED YOUNG MEN
IN THIS NEIGHBOURHOOD, WHO HAVE ANY INCLINATION TO JOIN THE TROOPS, NOW RAISING UNDER GENERAL WASHINGTON, FOR THE DEFENCE OF THE
LIBERTIES AND INDEPENDENCE OF THE UNITED STATES,
Against the British Empire and foreign invasion

TAKE NOTICE,

THAT
the undersigned do hereby certify that the above named young men have been examined and found to be of the age and condition required by the Continental Congress for the service of the United States, and that they are now under the arms of General Washington, and are ready to perform any duty which may be required of them.

WHITE-PLAINS, JULY, 9 1776.

IN CONVENTION OF THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NEW-YORK.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That the Reasons assigned by the CONTINENTAL CONGRESS, for declaring the United Colonies FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES, are cogent and conclusive, and that while we lament the cruel Necessity which has rendered that Measure unavoidable, we approve the same, and will at the Risque of our Lives and Fortunes, join with the other Colonies in supporting it.

RESOLVED, That a Copy of the said Declaration and the foregoing Resolution be sent to the Chairman of the Committee of the County of WESTCHESTER, with Orders to publish the same with Beat of Drum, at this Place, on Thursday next, and to give Directions that it be published with all convenient Speed in the several Districts within the said County.—And that Copies thereof be forthwith transmitted to the other County Committees within the STATE of New-York, with Orders to cause the same to be published in the several Districts of their respective Counties.

Extract from the Minutes,

ROBERT BENSON, Secretary.

The Daughter of an Immigrant

I am the daughter of an immigrant
Do you know what it is like watching a World War II movie with your father and seeing him slowly walk out the door without saying a word?

I am the daughter of an immigrant
Do you know what it is like hearing him laugh and seeing only the numbers on his arm?

I am the daughter of an immigrant
Every holiday and Saturday he goes to pray
Wearing his finest and talas

Holding his Bible

Close to his heart

I am the daughter of an immigrant

he believes

I do not

Why hasn't the Great One helped?

he believes

I do not

I would ask him why

he believes

But

I do not want him to question to remember to hurt

I won't

ask him

Him

No answer

No answer

I am the daughter of an immigrant

FOUND YOUR HEART AND LOST
YOUR LOVER,
LICK YOUR WOUNDS AND RUN
FOR COVER
TAKE YOUR TIME THEY'LL BE ANOTHER,
BUT DON'T MAKE THE SAME
MISTAKE TWICE, UNLESS YOU CAN PAY THE PRICE

ALL THE YEARS YOU'VE SPENT IN GROWING,
END UP ONE MORE LINE YOU'RE TOWING
DON'T LOOK NOW YOUR AGE
IS SHOWING,
BUT ITS MUCH TOO LATE TO TURN BACK,
YOU BETTER PULL IN THE SLACK

CAPTURED ANGEL ACHING TO MAKE YOUR BRAKE,
YOUR FREEDOM'S AT STAKE
YOU BETTER FLY
FLY, WHILE YOUR WINGS ARE STILL YOUNG,
YOUR FREEDOM'S BEEN FLUNG
WIDE OPEN
AND I'M HOPING YOU'LL SEE, THAT THERE'S A PLACE BESIDE
ME,
IF YOU EVER NEED IT

ALL THE YEARS OF SWEET
SALVATION END WITH RIGHTEOUS INDIGNATION
NOW IT SEEMS THAT YOU'VE FACED STARVATION,
BUT NOURISHMENT DOESN'T COME CHEAP,
YOU BETTER GO BACK TO SLEEP

Alone in my room, again
Listening to the saddest music I could find.
Thinking about you now
Thinking about you always.
Looking at a picture of us Recalling a happiness which has been gone since you left.
Seeing a glow from my face and heart
That has been dulled by tears.
Remembering a smile that I can't seem to make anymore.
Looking at a picture of us
Feeling the warmth we shared together.
Seeing a person that means too much to be so far away.
Remembering looking ahead.

How to get up to 75% of college tuition paid for.

Education now has the highest priority in the history of the Army

Last year, over 90,000 young men and women earned college credits while serving in the Army.

Now over 1000 colleges and the Army have developed a plan that will make college a reality for even more young people.

It's called Project Ahead and it's a way for qualified young people to select the participating college they want to graduate from before they start their enlistment

The best part is they'll take courses taught by accredited colleges right on post, with the Army paying up to 75% of the tuition.

Then, after the enlistment's over, the G.I. Bill offers further financial assistance

Call Army Sgt. Tom Mack.
